A PORTION OF THE PROCEEDS FROM SONG OF WISDOM BENEFIT
ST. JUDE CHILDREN'S RESEARCH HOSPITAL

FROM THE MOMENT I FIRST READ OLD TURTLE, I knew it had to be set to music. The timeless message and beauty of the storytelling almost sang itself. More than that, I knew we were the ones to do it, although it was humbling to even imagine attempting such a feat. The gracious author and publisher entrusted the musical setting to the Turtle Creek Chorale, a step of great faith on their part. The result is this remarkable composition. It represents the ultimate goal of all music: a perfect marriage of text and music. One would have thought Douglas Wood and Joseph Martin set out to create this work together. The chorus, orchestra and orchestration, the CD production by our own Craig Gregory, and the addition of Marlo Thomas to the mix capped off a magical two years of creating this phenomenal masterpiece. It is all simply too much to grasp. But here it is — Song of Wisdom — based on the award-winning book Old Turtle. Our hope is that countless people will be moved, as we are, by the message. Our hope is that people will "hear and begin to listen" to that part of God in all of us, regardless of race, color, creed, or even sexual orientation. TIM SEELIG

DOUGLAS WOOD Author, musician and poet. Douglas has produced nine albums of environmentally focused "EarthSongs" and created the healing meditation series "Wilderness Daydreams." Old Turtle, his first book, integrates his engaging approach to storytelling with his concern for the environment. Winner of the "ABBY" and the International Reading Association "Book of the Year" awards for 1993, Old Turtle is now being translated and published internationally.

JOSEPH MARTIN

Composer and pianist, with over 500 publications in print, his works have been recorded by leading choirs and orchestras across the nation. Joseph has performed throughout the United States, Mexico and Canada. He holds degrees from Furman University and the University of Texas at Austin.

BRANT ADAMS Brant has been a member of the Oklahoma State University music faculty since 1987 and currently serves as area coordinator of music theory and composition. Dr. Adams is a successful composer, arranger and orchestrator. In 1992 he was awarded the Distinguished Composer of the Year Award by the Music Teachers National Association. He holds a Bachelor of Music degree in piano performance from Capitol University, Master of Music degree in theory from the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music and the Doctor of Philosophy degree in music theory from the University of Texas at Austin.

CHENG-KEE CHEE Mr.

Chee is a signature member of the American Watercolor Society, has exhibited his works throughout the United States and China and has been honored with more than 60 national awards, including the American Watercolor Society's Silver Medal of Honor. His style synthesizes principal techniques and concepts from both the oriental and western traditions. Mr. Chee and his family live in Duluth, Minnesota.

TURTLE CREEK CHORALE The Turtle Creek Chorale (TCC) is a 250-member male chorus, under the artistic direction of Dr. Timothy Seelig. The TCC subscription season consists of four concerts, a repertoire from Bach to Broadway, sacred to secular. The Morton H. Meyerson Symphony Center is home to TCC for live performances and most recordings. In 1995, the chorus traveled to Europe, performing benefit concerts to sold-out audiences in Barcelona, Berlin and Prague. The Chorale has now recorded 21 CDs, making it the most recorded male chorus in history. The Chorale is featured on the EMMY® award-winning PBS documentary, After Goodbye: An AIDS Story. In addition to these collaborations, the TCC performed at the inauguration of Texas Governor Ann Richards, for the Queen of England and for former United States President and Mrs. George Bush.

THE WOMEN'S CHORUS OF DALLAS The Women's Chorus of Dallas (TWCD) has entered its eleventh season with over 100 dedicated singers, seven compact discs, a strong history of community service and growing recognition as one of the nation's finest women's community choruses. TWCD provides musical excellence and quality entertainment through a wide range of repertoire. The Women's Chorus of Dallas has been featured at numerous Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation events.

DR. TIMOTHY SEELIG Since becoming Artistic Director of TCC in 1987 and TWCD in 1994,

Dr. Timothy Seelig has led the choruses to achieve many notable milestones and has developed an active performance schedule with other arts organizations nationwide. Dr. Seelig is both performer and educator. He holds the Master of Music and the Doctor of Musical Arts degrees from the University of North Texas as well as the Diploma in Lieder and Oratorio from the Mozarteum in Salzburg, Austria. Dr. Seelig is also a member of the music faculty of Southern Methodist University. As a community leader, Dr. Seelig was selected to carry the 1998 Olympic Torch through a portion of downtown Dallas. Dr. Seelig also received the 1995 President's Citation as Distinguished Alumnus from The University of North Texas.

MARLO THOMAS Marlo Thomas has been honored by her peers as an actress, producer and social activist. Awards include four EMMY®s, nine EMMY nominations, a Golden Globe, the George Foster Peabody Award, the Helen Caldicott Award for Nuclear Disarmament, the Thomas Paine Award from the A.C.L.U., and the American Women in Radio and Television Satellite Award. Most recently, Ms. Thomas was inducted into the Broadcasting and Cable Hall of Fame.

Ms. Thomas is a founding director of the Ms. Foundation for Women. She is also a member of the board of the National Women's Political Caucus, The Creative Coalition and the Museum of Television and Radio. In addition, she has received the NAACP's Pathway to Excellence Award, William Moses Kunstler's Racial Justice Award and the National Council of Jewish Women's Rebekah Kohut Award.

Ms. Thomas and her family carry on the life work of her father, founder of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. The renowned St. Jude institution specializes in catastrophic diseases in children, and spearheaded the conquest of childhood leukemia.

ST. JUDE CHILDREN'S RESEARCH

HOSPITAL St. Jude Children's Research Hospital was founded by entertainer Danny Thomas and opened in 1962. It is supported primarily by volunteer contributions raised by ALSAC, a national fund-raising organization established by Danny Thomas expressly for the purpose of funding St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Located in Memphis, Tennessee, St. Jude is one of the world's premier centers for research and treatment of catastrophic diseases in children, primarily pediatric cancers. In 1996, Dr. Peter Doherty, Chairman of the Immunology Department at St. Jude, won the Nobel Prize for Medicine for research which radically advanced the field of Cellular Immunology. More than 4,000 patients are seen annually at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. For more information, visit their website at www.stjude.org.

Song of Wisdom from Old Turtle

Song of Wisdom
from Old Turtle

Book by Douglas Wood
Music by Joseph M. Martin

Book by Douglas Wood

Music by Joseph M. Martin

Song of Wisdom from Old Turtle is a choral and symphonic experience, which must not only be heard, but felt by the soul! This plea for peace on earth, based on the popular children's book Old Turtle, is a powerful acknowledgment of God's supreme love for the earth and its inhabitants. Staying true to Douglas Wood's text of the story, Joseph Martin has masterfully crafted the many characters and moods of the book into a musical fantasy.

Brant Adams's incredible orchestration adds depth and a sense of awe to this choral symphony—or use two pianos and percussion to get a wonderful effect. This work will leave your audience speechless—until they jump to their feet in enthusiastic applause!

Song of Wisdom from Old Turtle is destined to become a classic. "Music at its most healing."—Dallas Morning News
